Game Summary

12:45 PM, AA Game 12: Finals

The featured game of the tournament has to be the AA Championship. It is a rematch of last years championship game as well. Both teams were missing a few of their centers but overall it was a fair matchup between teams, size wise and speed wise. Icemen did cut the lead down to 8 points midway through the 4th quarter but careless turnovers seemed to haunt Icemen down the stretch. It was another game for the ages, as Ironmen has current starting point guard at Chapman University Garrett James who just dominated this weekend tournament. It was a high pace and physical game but Ironmen attacking style was more effective on setting up.

Ironmen players Garrett James had another strong performance with a game high 23 points, Jordan Hamamoto pitched in with 16 points, 8 rebounds, and 4 assists.

Icemen were led by Nick Demusis 14 points, and Taylor Hamasaki's 11 points.

Garrett James took home the tournament MVP honors.

Note (Ace Lee): Kirsten Bell is a NCAA Division I official.
