Game Summary

11:30am, AA game 2: ICEMEN vs West Side Lions

The game featured 2 talented guard oriented teams. Icemen has one of the best back courts in the tournaments with current Chapman University standout Taylor Hamasaki, and former standout Brandon Lin. With the addition of current Whittier College top scorer Nick Demusis, they are a force to reckon with.

The West Side Lions definitely have the experience, from playing in many different tournaments and leagues over the years. They have excellent outside shooting with Derek Wong and Robert Reynolds.

The game went back and forth most of the way, but it wasn't until the 4th quarter where Icemen turned it up and outscored the West Side Lions 24-10.

Icemen were led by Taylor Hamasaki's 22 points, 3 rebounds, and 2 assists, Nick Demusis 20points, 5 rebounds, and Brandon Lin's double-double 14 points, 10 rebounds, and 5 assists.

West Side Lions were led by Derek Wong's 20 points, Jay Ram added in 14 points, 6 rebounds, and Daniel Wong had 8 points, 5 rebounds.

Icemen advances on to face the Pasadena Bruins in the semifinals. The West Side Lions face Nakatani/Menehunes in the consolation bracket.
