Game Summary

4:15PM, A+ Silver 3rd Place game: Everest vs Tigers X-Treme

Everest comes in suffering a tough loss to Pacers and wanted to prove that they should have been in the championship game. They played against a young and athletic Tigers X-Treme who also had two tough games the day before. Everest is led by player/coach Steve Tran who had to sit this one out due to an injured knee, who reported is getting an MRI the following week. The game between these two teams started off close as they were matching basket for basket in the first half. It wasn't until John Chow from Everest, started to get going. Tigers X-Treme put up a good fight with guards Jasper Hwang and Brandon Lee, but they were only limited to 6 players due to a previous injury. Everest took control in the second half pushing out there victory by winning 63 to 46.

Tigers X-Treme were led by Jasper Hwang 11points, Adam Gupilan inside presence gave him a double double with 11 points, 15 rebounds, and Esai Orozco had 8 points, 4 rebounds.

Everest were led by John Chow 21 points, 7 rebounds and Davis To added 12 points and 13 rebounds for a double double.
