Game Summary

3:15 PM, AA Game 5 Semifinals: Icemen vs Pasadena Bruins

The game started off going back and forth the whole first half for a tied score at 37. Icemen had the size advantage out there over the Pasadena Bruins, however the Pasadena Bruins, still kept there hot shooting alive to keep them neck to neck with Icemen. The Bruins had no answer to Nick Demusis, as he was dominating the inside, but at the same time Icemen had a hard time slowing down George and Joey Toyama.

The game stayed close down to the last 15 seconds. Icemen was up by 3 points after a few made free throws, but the Pasadena Bruins had one last chance to send it into overtime. The Pasadena Bruins took the ball out from the sidelines and George Toyama had a good look from the top of the key to tie the game up but his shot rimmed out, and they had to foul. This was a very intense and exciting semifinal game to watch as the Pasadena Bruins played their hearts out to almost beat the very talented Icemen team.

Icemen showed there experience down the stretch as Coaches Susan and Vince Hamasaki calmed there players down to make the right decisions to pull out the win to head to the championship game for the second time in two years.

Pasadena Bruins were led by George Toyama with 21 points, 4 assists, and 3 rebounds, Joey Toyama added 15 points, 6 rebounds, and Steven Umemoto added 10 points and 3 rebounds.

Icemen were led by Nick Demusis 19 points, 11 rebounds double-double, Taylor Hamasaki added 16 points, 4 rebounds, and 2 assists, and Brandon Lin had a strong performance with 15 points, 8 rebounds, and 1 assist.
